Welcome Linda H. Yates

President Kathryn A. Higley and the National Council on Radiation Protection and Measurements (NCRP) staff are pleased to introduce Linda Yates as Grant Manager. Ms. Yates comes to the NCRP with nearly 30 years of experience in grant development and grants management.

She received a BS in Mass Communication from Kansas State University in 1996 and her Master of Public Administration from the University of Nebraska at Omaha in 2002, along with additional extensive graduate work in sociology. Ms. Yates has extensive experience in resource development, nonprofit administration/mangement, and business development, having raised more than $35 million for organizations, universities, municipalities, and manufacturers throughout the United States. Her work includes:

- As part of three senior staff groups, coordinated strategic initiatives with potential funding opportunities through to fruition. Includes relationship building, feasibility study, and community outreach/ recruitment/engagement.
- Coordinated successful grant-seeking programs for organizations and municipalities in Illinois, Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, Florida, Ohio, Texas, Maryland, and California, for outreach; municipal transportation infrastructure; financial assistance; science, technology, engineering and mathematics; education; school safety; district transportation; child abuse; poverty; housing; homelessness; hunger; and other relevant areas of need.
 - Recent special projects grants awarded from Missouri Foundation for Health, Federal Home Loan Bank, Google.org, Wells Fargo, Bank of America, National Aeronautics and Space Administration Glenn Research Center, and Bayer Fund.
 - Experienced at writing federal and state government grants, including Missouri Housing Trust Fund, Community Development Block Grants (numerous counties), Missouri Department of Public Safety, National Science Foundation, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Departments of Education, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, and U.S. Health and Human Services.
 - Experienced at writing international grants, including for the Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy (United Kingdom).
- Received second place in 2017 Winning Grant Proposal Competition, sponsored by Grant Professionals Association and GrantStation.

Ms. Yates will work with the NCRP to manage its current grants, seek new funding opportunities, develop the organization's annual grant-seeking strategy, and begin development of other fundraising initiatives to grow the NCRP's revenue base. Join us in welcoming Ms. Yates to the NCRP staff!
